

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2025 Indiana Grown Farmers Market Challenge winner announced

Indianapolis (August 25, 2025) – Indiana Grown announced the winner of Indiana's Ultimate Farmers Market Challenge as Franklin Farmers Market in Franklin, Ind.

This was the third year for this contest and was a chance for customers across the state to vote for their favorite hometown farmers market to encourage local engagement and statewide recognition. Franklin Farmers Market received over 1,500 votes! Total, there were over 5,000 votes cast during the 2-week voting period.

Indiana Grown Director Caroline Patrick is excited for the Franklin community.

"Franklin Farmers Market is a wonderful market and this recognition is well deserved," said Patrick. "Farmers markets are an integral part of Indiana communities' economies. We were thrilled to have so many great nominations for farmers markets and it is great to see consumers supporting them."

Franklin Farmers Market is a Saturday market operated from May through September, 8 a.m. to Noon. This market features over 90 vendors, live music and monthly themed days. The market is located at 161 W. Monroe St., Franklin, IN 46131. You can learn more about this special market here.

The Farmers Market Challenge wants to highlight the 2nd place winner as Westfield Farmers Market and 3rd place as Farmers Market at Winona Lake.

###

Pictured above is Indiana Grown member, Jonathan Bricker, of Brickhouse Vinaigrettes showcasing the 2025 Indiana Grown Farmers Market Challenge plaque.

Read more here about the 2025 winner.

